accompanied by Fr. Sanjay Ekka, Arjun Sunam Sir, the Coordinator of management Department and Dr. Rakesh Singh, senior faculty and the advisor of business club of SXJ. In this program, the present board members along with new executive members and new shareholders participated. The board of directors presented an annual report and highlighted the objectives of the business club. Thereafter, Fr. Sanjay Ekka presented the certificates to the students. The business club of St. Xavier's is formed with the purpose of creating future entrepreneurs and managers by providing entrepreneurship. This club strives to execute the textbook knowledge into practical fields so that the students can have the experience to manage business organization. On 29 March, while school was running smoothly, suddenly in the afternoon the whole atmosphere was covered with the smog; eyes had burning sensation. It was an unprecedented experience for many of us in Kathmandu. However, the government came into action immediately and circulated the directives to close down the school for four days.

Looking at the uncertainty of running the school, the school administration had planned out to have exams in two phases in order to tackle the unexpected situation. Somehow the first phase of exam was conducted on 20 April and the school was closed again due to the second wave of corona virus spreading rapidly. The parents were afraid to send their children to school, however they sent them just to write exams. Thus, some of the panicky parents came to school every day and took their children after the exam. Now the school has gone back to the online mode of class.

A long awaited desire of Fr. Ignatius Hemrom to go to Tipling was fulfilled. On March 31, 2021 he went to Tipling along with Fr. Amrit and Fr. Juel for the Easter service. Fr. George P.M. presided over the mass on the Maundy Thursday at St. Ignatius Church, Baniyatar. On the other hand, Fr. Sanjay Ekka presided over the Easter Vigil Mass at St. Ignatius church, Baniyatar. Sr. Mary Palliparambil, Sr. Asunta Kindo and Sr. Chinju Babu from Loyola school, Simalbari came to Kathmandu on April 13, 2021 and stayed with us. Fr. Tomson was generous enough to give his time to take them around Kathmandu, Bhaktapur and Nagarkot. Fr. George's niece Teresa also came to Kathmandu from Kerala and stayed with us for a few days. Br. Hermon Anthony went around different parishes in order to revive his Crusvir ministry. He celebrated his birthday with community members on April 7, 2021. Fr. Anil Beck is busy in post Easter house blessings in Baniyatar.

Hearty Welcome Bro. Broney and best wishes for new mission. Bro. Broney Chettri as a new minister arrived SXG at the end of March with a missionary spirit.

We celebrated the birthday of Fr. Lawrence Maniyar which was very exceptional due to Maundy Thursday. On Good Friday, government officials of Forest and Land Measurement Department measured SXG land to make official record. Mr. Damodar Wagle, District Chief also visited SXG while his staff were measuring the land.

with various departments of the government with regard to SXG land issues.

In spite of pandemic and uncertainty the school had online Coordinators meeting for school planning of 2021-22 on Gode Jatra Day. Let's hope for better. In the second week of April Fr. Lawrence M. visited Darjeeling for death anniversary of his friend.

Godavari was the right place to celebrate the Nepali New Year. A sea of people from valley visited the area for the celebration. Same day Hebron church group from Dolahithi used Ashram premises for their prayers.

The most of school staff took Covid-19 vaccine

Classes 1, 2 and 3 resumed the school physically after pandemic on 5 April. New comers of class 1 were excited and were very cheerful to see their class rooms. During the school assembly Bro. Broney was officially welcomed by the school. The virtues of patience and humility are needed in SXG mission. The Jesuits here continue to work from Anandban hospital. In the community Frs. Bill and Lawrence M. took Indian and the rest community members have taken Chinese vaccine. So readers! As time passes by, you will see the effect of the vaccine.

Due to uncertainty the school announced on 19

April that it would go for online classes for all. Fr. Bill was available to give a day recollection to Salesian Fathers.

On April 25 SSP of Lalitpur District Ms Kiran Bajracharya visited the SXG and had lunch with the community. US secretary of State John Kerry and Senator Bob Corker has honoured and awarded Superintendent of Nepal Police Kiran Bajracharya, as a 2016 Trafficking in Persons Report Hero whose efforts have made an impact on the global fight against modern slavery.

Upward spike in Nepal reported Covid-19 cases continue as 4774 cases surfaced on Wednesday. Lockdown began in the valley on 28 April. Our staff continued to come for the work in the school.

In school premises there is a Koirala plant which beautifies the place and adds flavor as we make pickle for Nepali meal. The image of Koirala tree is shown below. By the way beauty and taste are relative term.

Dilip joined our community from 30 March and has begun to explore various possibilities of starting the new mission in Province 2. Recently, he went to Jhapa to renew his license and on his way back visited a few possible places in Province 2 with Clarence.

For Easter ministry, Jiju went to Gyalthum along with three IMCS members and two SPC sisters. The IMCS members prepared the faithful there in celebrating Good Friday and Easter more meaningfully. Jomon went to Surkhet for Easter ministry while James joined the Godavari parish. Cap, Robert and Victor had their Holy Week celebrations at home. Augustine was in Kerala for Easter and returned on 10 April.

The commencement and award ceremony for the A Level students of the batch 2019-21 was held on 10th. Dr. Buland Thapa, a well known alumnus of our schools was the chief guest and delivered the commencement speech. Likewise we had the graduation and award ceremony for the bachelor and master level students of Microbiology and Physics on 12th. The newcomers of the Department of Major Arts and Social Work had a welcome program organized by their seniors.

The second wave of Covid has caught up with the College activities. We shifted to online classes from 21 April and decided to continue with the pre-scheduled examinations physically. However, all exams and administrative work are henceforth suspended following the government order.

On 23rd we received the sad news of the untimely passing away of Ms. Merina Manandhar of our English department. She was suffering from cancer for more than a year and was undergoing treatment. She was a staff of our College from 2010. Both her children went through S X J.

She is going to be dearly missed for her excellent teaching and for her kind and caring nature towards all.

We were in for yet another shock, when on 24th we heard about the demise of Fr.

P. T. Augustine who was the Principal of the College from 2001 to 2007. His footprints are visible all over the College through various physical and academic developments he accomplished during his tenure. Generations of students and staff will be ever grateful to him for the numerous measures he took for the growth of the College.

SHISHU BIKASH KENDRA, POKHARA

The lake city Pokhara observed three weeks of smoky weather which interrupted the regular city life. Most of the schools, colleges and businesses were shut down. Amidst the widespread Covid-19 pandemic all walks of life has once again succumbed to lockdown. SBK had reopened the school with proper consult of teachers and parents with prior information. A decade of students had turned up to the school on the first day but due to the uncertainty of the Covid – 19 situations SBK is closed down again. When the situation betters, SBK will resume the classes. The supporting staffs come to centre everyday to make the land cultivable. All our staff, students and parents are well. Sr. Angela Mandi, SCC said goodbye to SBK. Big thanks to her for her selfless and committed service to SBK and to the Church. She kept our vegetable garden evergreen and took care of house pets. We gave best wishes to her future ministry.

The holy week was packed with spiritual activities in the church. Throughout the holy week Fr. Ayar and Amit were available to the parishioners. Fr. Ayar gave talk on reconciliation to Our Lady of Pillar Mata Church. He organized talks, adoration and confession in the church for the parishioners. He manifested the greatest love and service to the people in the church by observing the commandment of Jesus by washing the feet of the parishioners. The passion of Christ movie in Nepali was screened in the church which touched the heart of the people the most. Police had given the security on Easter Vigil Night. Thanks for their care and concern. There were 75 plus participants on Easter vigil mass. Fr. Ayar baptized Satendar Lama, a new

Catholic member who is added to our church. Fr. Amit was the main celebrant for the Easter week. All the celebration went on well. We have remained in our own church jurisdiction as Rev. Bishop Paul Simick instructed and things are functioning smoothly on both the churches of the city. Knowing and working in one's own church territory has smoothened the relationship with the other side Fathers. We feel much effective and are able to give quality pastoral care and concern to our people in the church. We give three days Mass in a week to Hemja Sisters. Fr. Ayar gives community Mass to Cluny Sisters once in a week. The Easter house blessing and the family Mass continues. Congrats to Karishma Oli, our youth who received black belt in Taekwondo.

ST. XAVIER'S SOCIAL SERVICE CENTRE

The month of April had been busy month for SXSSC students due to several activities such as basketball tournament, project works, and plantation in the garden. Mr. Bir Bahadur Ghalan moved to Jawalakhel Center to stay with boys and do his accounting work. Mr. Bal Krishna Devkota has been asked to stay at Gafney Bhawan instead and take care of the elderly. Nepal as a whole and Kathmandu Valley in particular experienced extreme air pollution. Hence, educational institutions were closed for five days. During the closure, students busied themselves in studies, house chores and other extra-curricular activities. We celebrated Easter with great joy, hope and with positive vibe amidst the fear of COVID 19 pandemic. The message of the Easter was that there is always light after going through the darkness and this message filled our minds and hearts with hope and faith. During polluted days, we got to experience some showers of rain which really decreased the pollution level, watering land, and refreshing the environment. We busied ourselves in gardening, cultivating corns and veggies. Ms. Kanchan Magar, one of our well-wishers came along with her friends and conducted art session on 17 April. Aruna Bhawan thanks them for providing the children with crayons and sketch books. The reared chickens were dying one by one. So we decided to cut all of them and share among all the houses. SXSSC expressed its gratitude towards Mr. Nuchhe Lal Khadgi and Mr. Manoj Kumar Budhathoki for their selfless and dedicated service to the children for more than thirty years. The institute acknowledged their dedication and sincerity in fulfilling their responsibilities. Aruna Bhawan thanked and bade farewell to Ms. Laxmi Tamang who served Aruna Bhawan for three years. We wish all of them a successful and happy life ahead. The recent announcement by the government on possible lockdown to control the second wave pandemic has created hue and cry among us with lots of uncertainty with regard to opening of children's schools and examination.

KAMAL NIWAS

Nepal Jesuit Social Institute (NJSI) handed over and inaugurated 4 classrooms at Jay Golma Basic School on 8 April. The school is located at Barabise Municipality ward no.8. The building was financially supported by "Caritas Germany". After the earthquake the students had no proper place for the classrooms. They were studying in Temporary Learning Center (TLC). Now they have a secured classroom with concrete walls. In the program, representatives from Local Government, Mayor, students, parents, representatives from Caritas Germany, Mr Richard Rai, Fr.Roy and NJSI team were present.

NJSI has initiated Rural Education Improvement in Nepal (REIN) Project in schools of remote areas. In this project, the schools will be connected through digital and networking technologies. NJSI has a plan to create "Education Smart Hub" in 20 remote earthquake recovered schools in Nepal as a pilot project.

NJSI team installed first Smart Education Hub in Shree Robang Basic School on 9 April, after giving the training program to the teachers. The students and teachers both were pretty excited to see the new technology in the school. The students were so curious and gathered in front of a TV. The teachers are looking forward to use the technology for the teaching and other purposes such as showing videos, pictures, songs, some refreshment games etc.

One more "Teacher's Training Program" in which 14 teachers participated, was conducted on 19 April. Shree Siddeshwor Secondary School is located in one of the difficult terrains of the country, named Mahabharat Rural Municipality, ward no 3. The earthquake of 2015 had affected the infrastructure of the school. The students were studying in TLC. So, as per their need, NJSI constructed two classrooms with financial support from Caritas Italy. The classrooms were handed over and inaugurated on 27 April to the school management committee. Handing over ceremony started at 2.30 PM. Gyan bhadur Lama, Ward Adakshya was Chief Guest of the programme. Utter Singh Jimba, School management committee President was chairman of the programme. Mr. Nani Babu Head Master of the school gave welcome speech. Frs. Arul and Raja and NJSI team participated in the programme as special guests. Boniface went to Mittal. Fr. Raja joined Kamal Niwas community on 31 March; on the same day NJSI bade farewell to Fr. Thomas. Fr. Augustus joined community on 12 April; next day NJSI gave him a warm welcome.

Fourth batch completed their St. Anne's Executive Management Course on 25 April 2021. The programme was held on St. Anne's convent, Taukhel, Lalitpur. The six-month training was comprised of learning basic computer terms and uses, English and Nepali typewriting, personality development, and speaking English. The course had started on January 2020 but due to covid pandemic only 3 months' course was completed and then the course resumed on January 2021 after slowdown of covid ratio. All the esteemed guests showed their presence including parents of students. Twenty-four students participated in the training program. The students gracefully executed their performances, shared their experiences and had good wishes from everyone. The students expressed their gratitude towards NJSI. At last, certificates were distributed and refreshment were relished. NJSI wishes all the students for their betterment in their future and hope they will inspire others too and help in need.

ST. IGNATIUS, BANIYATAR

Month of March went on smoothly with Easter preparation and the Lenten services in the Parish. Unlike last year, we got some windows for the grand preparation for the Easter celebration this year. In order to prepare spiritually, the parish organized a night out Easter preparation retreat in Godavari for the Crusvir on 19-20 March and for the Youth on 26-27 March.

Since, the parish priest was busy in the parish activities, Fr. David took the entire responsibility in organizing and arranging retreats and preachers for both the groups. I would like to thank Fr. David and his preaching team for accommodating our parishioners for the retreat as well as sponsoring the retreats. I also would like to extend my thanks to Fr. George PM for providing vehicles for the Crusvir group to go to Godavari. We had retreat evaluation on 10 April for both the groups where all expressed their happiness for getting the chance to prepare themselves spiritually for the Easter. There were a few suggestions cum expectations to have such retreats on special occasions like parish feast and Christmas as well.

In the third week of March, the parish priest informed and requested all the parishioners to come on their own, in their convenient times to make a confession, since it was not possible to organize a day of confession for all due to present COVID 19. This year too we had a very good Palm Sunday prothe Easter Mass. I would like to specially thank Sr. Roseline and Sunita K.C. and their crew for their time, hard work and dedication which we enjoyed throughout the Holy Week and on the Easter Sunday.

Since, we could not celebrate Easter last year, and all of us survived and are safe by the grace of God, this year parishioners wanted to make it a bigger and better event so to say to uplift the spirits of the parishioners. Three weeks before the Holy Week, a meeting was held with zone and youth leaders how to celebrate it and plan it out properly. All unanimously decided to have a very special and a big celebration this year. The parish zones took up different responsibilities along with youths. The parish decided to have a big Bhoj with Khanshi Maasu (mutton meat) on the Easter Sunday. The parishioners, two days before the Holy Week, came to the church to clean up the church premises including a parking space outside the church main gate.

A big thanks to Jesuit Fathers from the valley who came to the St. Ignatius parish, Baniyatar to attend the Holy Week services. On Holy Thursday, Fr. George PM and on Good Friday, Fr. Dilip Toppo presided over the Holy services. On the Easter eve, for the Easter vigil Fr. Sanjay Ekka led us to a meaningful Pasca journey. On Easter Sunday, the parish priest took the whole spiritual and physical aspects cession and a Mass service despite an absence of youth group since they were out in Godavari attending retreat. In the absence of youth, Crusvir group along with Sr. Roseline led us to a very meaningful Jesus' entry to Jerusalem. We had, simultaneously, an ongoing singing practice for the Holy Week and of the celebration. On Good Friday, Adoration to Blessed Sacrament was organized for whole day, beginning in the morning until the "Way of the Cross" began. For the Adoration different zones were assigned. On the Easter vigil, three families got baptized among whom three were adults and three were children. The Baniyatar community was more than happy to welcome the new faithful in the parish.

On Holy Thursday and Saturday, after the services we had dinner for all the guests. The dinner was prepared and helped by the parishioners whereas on Saturday, after the vigil Mass, parishioners were served with coffee and refreshment. The Sisters from Prernalaya too added their special preparation Sarpotel (pork dish) to the occasion. Thank you so much Sisters for making the day for all of us.

For the big celebration on Easter vigil Mass all were requested to put on clean and good dresses and specially on Sunday all were expected to dress up in their traditional ethnic dresses. On Sunday, after the Mass before the big bhoj, stage was open to every individual and groups to put up a cultural programme. After the Easter big Bhoj, common Bendo-Maya group dance went on until late evening.

This year, as everyone wanted special way to celebrate the Easter, the whole parish took extra effort in making it so. The decoration of the Alter for the Holy Week and Easter Sunday along with outdoor decorations were exceptional. There were good number of families who came forward to help out to meet some of the expenses. St. Vincent De Paul and CFC Baniyatar bore some of the extra expenses incurred for the whole affair as well.

The following week we had a 'Con-validation' marriage blessing for the newly baptized couples on Easter vigil Mass. On the last Saturday of April, we had one more adult baptism for an elderly person who by all means wanted to be baptized before he died. As we came to an end of April, once again we are forced to have small group of faithful on Saturdays' mass to avoid the big gathering. The Baniyatar parish priest has to say at least three masses continuously to accommodate everyone. At the same time parish priest has been constantly reminding and updating the parishioners about the COVID 19. At present parish priest is busy with annual blessing of the houses.

After the levelling and plotting of the right side of the church's adjacent land, church wall was on the verge of collapse. Now, the church has a newly built boundary wall which is completed recently.

PREMAL JYOTI, AHMEDABAD

Month of March was quite good because corona was under control but due to elections and different festivals now the situation is alarming. During the holy week we went to St. Xavier's Parish, Navrangpura for mass, abided by the covid protocols and also attended Easter vigil in the Parish. It was a moment of grace for all of us because after a year we celebrated Easter. On 4th of April, we had Easter celebration in the community. After Easter we had lots of fourth coming community activities but due to sudden increase in positive cases of covid we cancelled all those activities.

The unexpected demises of four Gujarat Jesuits due to covid has aggrieved us severely, shaken us extremely and left us in despair and confusion. Indeed, the cloud of hopelessness and despair cover all around us and we are faced with alarming situation. And right now, the situation here in Ahmedabad is out of control due to exceptional increasing in number and there are not sufficient beds and oxygen in the city.

Apart from all these prevailing situations First year students are busy with our daily online classes while second year and third year are busy with 4th and 6th semester examinations respectively. Recently we had monthly recollection given by Dr. Daniel (a lay man recently converted from Jainism to Catholicism).

ST. XAVIER'S, RAJGANJ

April was an important month for all the Christians this year because they celebrated Easter. But many might not have been able to celebrate due to Covid-19 lockdown. Niroj after his exams went for home visit on 28th. As the Holy week arrived the first year philosophers from Satyanilayam began their 2nd CIA of second semester. We were blessed with exams during the Passion Week. Since it was online, our spiritual activities were not affected. Though people were uncertain of the Easter celebration in different places, we were able to celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus Christ meaningfully at Rajganj community. This year it was more meaningful to pray for those especially affected by Covid-19 and those who have gone for eternal rest. After the Easter celebration I was fully occupied with my 2nd Semester exams from 13-21 April. As I was blessed by the risen Lord, I also had a lot of intellectual activities. With the final exam the semester was not over. I had to complete (Self-integration paper, Life Skill assignment, summary of "Faith and Reason" by John Paul II) before the end of April. On 26th during the pick time of corona, I travelled to Deonia that I would travel to Kathmandu for my Internship program. But that was not possible because of lockdown in Kathmandu; so on the next day 27th I had to travel back to Matigara. I was happy to visit Deonia community. At present I am at HLDRC for my Internship program; it is a university requirement for P.G. course in Loyola College, Chennai.

Dear Fathers and Brothers, as we all are aware of covid-19 situation all over the world, let us remember each other in our prayers because only God can keep us away from this unpredictable virus.

After our third semester exams we visited Nathula, a border area between India and China. Sikkim Government obliged us to have online classes for the fourth semester from 21 April. Second wave of Covid-19 seems to be strong here and Sikkim Government is very strict with protocols. We are staying inside the compound and are busy with our classes and games in the evenings. Fathers are concerned about our good health and safety. We are well taken care in our community during this pandemic situation.
